

Alternate Ending

A. When the team enters the room, tell them this is a verbal problem

B.

1. You will have 2 minute to discuss and 4 minutes to respond. You may ask questions during your discussion time; however, time continues.
2. You are to respond in sequence. You may not skip your turn or repeat or pass. If one member of the team is stuck, the team is stuck.
3. Often there are alternate endings on the DVD version of a movie. You are members of a production crew attempting to rewrite the ending to Little Red Riding Hood. The story goes: When Little Red Riding Hood entered the little cottage, she could scarcely recognize her Grandmother. "But Grandmother! What big teeth you have," said Little Red Riding Hood her voice quivering slightly. "The better to eat you with, my dear," roared the wolf and he leapt out of the bed and began to chase the little girl. A woodsman who was chopping logs nearby heard her cry and ran towards the cottage as fast as he could. The woodsman knocked out the wolf and carried him deep into the forest where he wouldn't bother people any longer.

4. Your problem is for first team member to come up with an alternate ending to this story then the next team member will come up with a different alternate ending.
5. You will receive 1 point for common responses and 3 points for creative responses or 1 point for each common alternate ending and 3 point for each creative ending.
